800 passport service centres in head POs

BHUBANESWAR

The Centre has decided to open passport service centres in all the 800 district head post offices across the country in two years to increase people's access to the facility, especially in remote areas. Making the announcement here on Tuesday, Minister of State for External Affairs V. K. Singh said, "150 post office passport seva kendras are being opened this year and within two years all the 800 head post offices in all the districts would be in place." PTI
