

Innovative nations: India ranks 60th

NEW DELHI, JUNE 15

India has been ranked 60th globally and first in Central and Southern Asia in the Global Innovation Index-2017, launched at the UN Headquarters in Geneva.

India has moved up six places up from 66th rank last year. India is the top-ranked economy in Central and Southern Asia and has outperformed on innovation relative to its GDP per capita. Switzerland, Sweden, the Netherlands, the US and the UK retain the top spots. — TNS
