The Finance Ministry today said as many as 12.54 lakh Point of Sale (PoS) terminals were added in January-March this year, giving a boost to government's efforts to promote digital transactions after demonetisation. With the addition, the total number of PoS terminals increased to 27.73 lakh at the end of March 2017. Further, to improve such infrastructure in villages, 2.04 lakh PoS terminals have been sanctioned from the Financial Inclusion Fund by NABARD, according to key achievements and initiatives of Department of Financial Services for providing social security and credit to various sections of society and ensuring Financial Inclusion.

To augment card acceptance infrastructure for use of debit cards, a major drive was undertaken between December 2016 and March 2017, resulting in an increase in PoS terminals by an additional 12.54 lakh, up from 15.19 lakh as on November 2016, it said. Various departments under government of India have come out with list of achievements on the third anniversary of the NDA government under Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Highlighting other achievements of the department, it said, the deposit base under Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana (PMJDY) accounts has expanded over time.
